

The Artist

Astrid Charlotte Wintgens

The artist

Astrid Charlotte Wintgens was born in Duisburg, near Düsseldorf in Germany.

She graduated in Textile Design and Art at the Werkkunstschule Krefeld (1989-1994). Afterwards, she learned Web design and worked as a Multimedia Conceptionist (2000/2001).

She took over classes in the Media Academy Düsseldorf, to teach basics of design between 2001-2005.

Next to her work as an artist, Astrid Charlotte Wintgens started in 2019 a master class at the Freie Kunstakademie Augsburg under the mentorship of Prof. Jo Bukowski.

She is currently working as an artist in Switzerland and Germany. Prior to that, she also assisted in stage design and the creation of costumes for actors in London.

Exhibitions

Astrid Charlotte Wintgens exhibited alone and as part of group exhibitions in Paris, Monaco, Rome, Bruges, Vienna, Venice, Milan, Buenos Aires and in Düsseldorf.

New artist of the gallery after having exhibited in Paris with Monteoliveto Gallery in 2018 at the Tombola exhibition, she is part of the art events of the gallery in the 2020 Roots exhibition in Paris and in the 2021 Aix en Provence Art Fair.
