Chan Suk On was born and lives in Hong Kong. She graduated from the Hong Kong Polytechnic University with a Bachelor of Photographic Design. She gained her Masters of Arts in Fine Arts at the Chinese University of Hong Kong. On is an editor, photographer and artist. She is inspired by everyday life experiences. Her journey is going from documentary photography to conceptual art. Creation is a process that starts from zero to transform ideas into works of art. It gives me a fresh feeling, constantly exploring the unknown possibilities from the creation. It is very satisfying when sharing with others. Art is like a metaphor and there is a bit of vagueness that triggers the audience to think. Art can heal my heart and your heart. It is the source of spirituality.

Contemporary art is not just a painting, happenings or performance art. They are mixed together unexpectedly and spontaneously. It is like a show. No one can expect the result at the end. It gives the audience a refreshing experience to appreciate contemporary art. Nothing is impossible in the future of the contemporary art scene. In the future, she will still be playing with contemporary art.

Her artworks have been exhibited nationally, as well as in Hong Kong, Taiwan, Japan, China, the United Kingdom, the United States, Italy and Paris. Her art has been featured in publications such as Art International Contemporary Magazine, Contemporary Art Curator Magazine, Circle Arts Spotlight Contemporary Art Magazine, Top 10 Contemporary Artists, Inside Artists Magazine, Community Arts Magazine, Art Collector's Choice-Japan Book, Important World Artists, World of Art Magazine, The FLUX Review, Observica Magazine, Current Masters, Art Universal-The Great Encyclopedia of International Art, We Contemporary and Trends in Art: Insights for Collectors Art Book. She got prizes such as Woman's Essence Show Woman Art Award 2020, International Prize Artist of the Year 2020, Raffaello & Canova International prize, Royal Arts Prize 2021, The Best Modern and Contemporary Artists 2021, Power of Creativity Art Prize, Art Tour International Magazine ATIM's Top 60 Masters, WMA Masters 2017/2018 Award Finalist, Hong Kong Human Right Art Prize Finalist 2018.
